Creating Restorative Communities
Led by Valleria Miranda-Ferrick, Executive Director and Founder of Unity Circles

In this training, participants will learn about the philosophy, pillars and practices of Restorative Justice in the context of youth organizations. Through principles and best practices, participants will leave with an understanding of how to adopt Restorative Justice as both a preventative and responsive practice in their organization.

Trainer Bio: Valleria Miranda-Ferrick is a Restorative Justice practitioner, educator and trainer. She started her journey into this work in 2012 when she first learned about Peacemaking Circles and its healing power. Since 2012, Valleria has worked with over 10 Boston Public Schools as a partner in bringing Circles as a transformative and healing practice to youth and staff in the school system. To read the rest of the bio, please visit http://youthworkcentral.org

Learn about the theory behind Restorative Justice.
Identify ways to implement RJ into your youth programs.

Date: Thursday, April 9th
Time: 9:30 am - 4:00 pm
Price: $99 pp

To Register: Visit http://youthworkcentral.org
For Questions: Email best@hria.org (no phone calls please)
For more on Unity Circles: unitycircles.org

TRAINING LOCATION:
Urban College of Boston
2 Boylston Street, 2nd Floor
Boston, MA, 02116

Subsidized by:
Health Resources in Action
Advancing Public Health and Medical Research
Unity Circles
LIVE UNITED United Way