

Youth Development in the time of COVID 19

Promising Practices, Tools and Lessons Learned

Hosted by Laurie Jo Wallace, Daisy Ortega,
Lisa Aslan and Mo Barbosa

Join an interactive workshop to better understand how out-of-school time professionals are connecting with, supporting and providing content to and for the young people they serve.

We will explore tools, online services, social media options, methods and lessons learned from a diverse set of organizations working to serve their youth and families.

Bring your examples of tools, websites, content you have offered and other things, on and off line, that you are doing to support youth.
